EDUCATION

- 2013-2018      Ph.D., Sociology, Northeastern University

Dissertation: “Unseen Science: The Social Re-Discovery of Per- and Polyfluorinated Compounds”
Committee: Phil Brown (chair), Steven Vallas, Laura Senier, and Alissa Cordner
- 2006-2008      M.A., Sociology, Washington State University

Thesis: “Patterns of Hazardous Waste in the United States: Analyzing Rural Environmental Justice with Spatial Data”
Committee: Gregory Hooks (chair), Eugene Rosa, and Scott Frickel
- 2001-2005      B.A., Sociology, Connecticut College (with distinction)
Certificate in Conservation Biology and Environmental Studies

ACADEMIC POSITIONS

- 2019-present      Assistant Professor, Department of History, Philosophy + Social Sciences
Rhode Island School of Design
- 2018-2019      Postdoctoral Research Fellow, Silent Spring Institute
Postdoctoral Research Fellow, Social Science Environmental Health Research Institute, Northeastern University

NONACADEMIC PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- 2009-2013      Development Director, Center on Race, Poverty & the Environment, Oakland, CA

GRANTS

2022-2025	National Science Foundation (Senior Collaborator), “Multi-scalar Environmental Governance: The Case of PFAS.” $500,000. (PI: Phil Brown, Alissa Cordner)
2021	Social Equity and Inclusion Research Grant, Rhode Island School of Design, $6,500
2020	Humanities Fund, Rhode Island School of Design, $2,000
2020	New Faculty Research Grant, Rhode Island School of Design, $1,500
2019	Professional Development Grant, Robert & Patricia Switzer Foundation, $500
2019	Professional Development Grant, Rhode Island School of Design, $3,150
2018-2019	Leadership Grant, Robert and Patricia Switzer Foundation, $22,000
2018	National Science Foundation Conference Award for “Bridging the Gap: Race and Environment Conference,” American Sociological Association Environmental Sociology Section, Committee on Race and Equity, $19,000. With Michael Mascarenhas, Raoul Liévanos, Elisabeth Wilder, and Jennifer Carrera.
2018	Robert & Patricia Switzer Foundation, Professional Development Grant, $400
2017	National Science Foundation Doctoral Dissertation Improvement Award, $7,500
2014, 2015 & 2017	Summer Research Grant, Department of Sociology & Anthropology, Northeastern University, $500, $500, and $2,000
2014	New World Foundation Grant, “Crowdsourcing Disaster Response in Colorado” $25,000. With Sara Wylie and Public Lab.

AWARDS AND FELLOWSHIPS

2020	International Society of Exposure Science Award for Best Journal Article of Exposure Science and Environmental Epidemiology
2019	Kendall Fellowship, Union of Concerned Scientists (declined)
2018	Association of Environmental Studies and Sciences Best Student Paper Award
2018	Department of Sociology & Anthropology Outstanding Research Paper Award, Northeastern University
2017-2018	Robert & Patricia Switzer Foundation Environmental Fellow
2015	Department of Sociology & Anthropology Outstanding Public and Applied Research Award, Northeastern University
2010	Young Nonprofit Professional Network Career Development Committee “Volunteer of the Year,” San Francisco Bay Chapter
2008	Thomas S. Foley Institute Graduate Fellowship, Foley Institute, WSU
2008	Boeing Graduate Fellowship in Environmental Studies, WSU
2007	Fred R. Yoder Memorial Graduate Fellowship, Department of Sociology, WSU
2005	American Sociological Association Student Honors Program

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Rhode Island School of Design

Graduate Research Prospectus, Nature, Culture and Sustainability Studies, 2021, 2022
Environmental Sociology, 2020, 2021, 2022
Environmental Justice, 2019, 2020, 2021
Social Movements and Backlash, 2019, 2020

University of San Francisco, Instructor of Record

Environmental Justice, 2011 (co-taught with Alégria De La Cruz)
Environmental Justice, 2009

RISD Graduate Students Supervised

2021: Harsha Devaraj, master of arts, Global Arts & Culture, thesis committee member
2021: Talia Garrido, master of arts, Nature, Culture & Sustainability Studies, thesis committee member
2020: Rebecca Fruehwald, master of arts, Nature, Culture & Sustainability Studies, thesis committee member

Additional Teaching Experience

2018            College of the Atlantic, Workshop Designer and Facilitator, Bar Harbor, ME
Led campus and community training on facilitating conversations on race.

2005-2006    Nova Group. English Instructor. Iwaki, Japan.

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

2019-present    Social Science Environmental Health Research Institute, Northeastern University
Affiliated Faculty Researcher
Conduct qualitative data analysis, archival research, and policy analysis on emerging chemicals of concern. Funded by two NSF grants, “New Chemical Class Activism: Mobilization Around Per- and Polyfluoralkyl Substances,” and the recently awarded, “Multi-Stakeholder Environmental Governance: The Case of PFAS.” Oversee graduate and undergraduate research and public research translation on PFAS contamination.

2018-2019    Silent Spring Institute, Research Fellow
Conducted in-depth interviews in communities responding to PFAS contamination on Cape Cod. Provided research translation to impacted communities, engaged in ongoing private well monitoring in homes on the Cape for the STEEP Superfund Research Program, led by Silent Spring Institute, University of Rhode Island, and Harvard University. Funded by the Robert & Patricia Switzer Foundation.

- 2018-2019 Northeastern University, Research Fellow
 Conducted in-depth interviews, participant observation, archival research, and content analysis to investigate the multi-decade social and scientific discovery of per- and polyfluorinated compounds. Supervised undergraduate and graduate student research collaborators in the Social Science Environmental Health Research Institute. Funded by NSF.
- 2016-2018 Environmental Data and Governance Initiative, Interview Research Group
 Collaborator on research initiative monitoring changes to federal regulation, enforcement, research, funding, websites and agency management at the Environmental Protection Agency, Department of Energy, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, and the Occupational Safety and Health Administration. Member of the “EPA Under Siege” writing group, collective authors of EDGI article, “The Environmental Protection Agency in the Early Trump Administration: Prelude to Regulatory Capture.” 2018. American Journal of Public Health. 108(S2): S89-S94.
- 2006-2007 Washington State University, Research Assistant
 Created a national spatial dataset in GIS of hazardous waste sites and census data to assess the relationship between hazardous waste sites, race, and class in the rural U.S.

INVITED TALKS & GUEST LECTURES

Discussant, Chair, or Panel Organizer

Dialogue Session: Racial Capitalism, Designs for Energy Transition, and the Green New Deal. 2019. Climate Futures II Symposium. Rhode Island School of Design and Brown University, Providence, RI.

The Political and Economic Context of PFAS. 2019. PFAS National Conference, Boston, MA.

Inside Looking Out. 2018. Bridging the Gap: Race and Environment Conference, Philadelphia, PA.

Community-Scientist Partnerships: Bridging the Gap Between Communities and Science. 2017. American Association for the Advancement of Science, Boston, MA.

Conference Poster Presentations

The PFAS Project. 2020. "From PBB to PFAS: Research and Action to Address Michigan's Large-Scale Chemical Contaminations." University of Michigan, Ann Arbor. With Phil Brown, Alissa Cordner, Jennifer Ohayon, Cole Alder, Kylin Brown, Elicia Cousins, Jessica Roderiguez, Grace Poudrier, Martha Powers, Avery Rosenbloom, Isabel Araceli Ernst Geisler, Sana Chowdhry, Olivia Chignon & Lauren Balsamo.

Contested Data: A Place-Based Account of Two Decades of Citizen Science in California's Southern San Joaquin Valley. 2015. First Annual Citizen Science Conference, San Jose, CA.

RECENT PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

- 2021 Finding Freedom: White Women Taking on Our Own White Supremacy, Participant in 5-week workshop led by Evangeline Weiss and Kari Points, Finding Freedom, Durham, NC.
- 2020 Decolonial Teaching and Action, Participant in Faculty Semester Course, RISD, Center for Social Equity and Inclusion, Providence, RI.
- 2020 National Center for Faculty Development and Diversity (NCFDD), Future Faculty Success Program, Participant in 12-week professional development program.
- 2019 Inclusive Syllabus Workshop. RISD Center for Social Equity and Inclusion, 9/14.
- 2019 Cultural Appropriation Workshop, RISD Center for Social Equity and Inclusion, 10/19.
- 2019 New England Workshop on Race and Ethnicity (NEWER), Research Workshop Participant, Boston University, 11/11.
- 2016-2018 StirFry Seminars & Consulting, Certification in Mindful Facilitation, Berkeley, CA. Trained in facilitation techniques focused on discussions of race and racism.

COMMUNITY AND POLICY ENGAGEMENT

- 2021 Toxic Forever Chemicals in Rhode Island: A Town Hall Conversation. Public panel organized by RI State Representatives Terri Cortvriend and June Speakman, Conservation Law Foundation, Clean Water Action, and the Audubon Society.
- 2020-present Education Committee Member. Showing-up for Racial Justice (SURJ), Rhode Island Chapter. Currently developing political education trainings on: 1) white supremacy and class, and 2) white supremacy and intergenerational trauma.
- Organizer and Facilitator, Spring Dialogue Series, 2022
Participant, Summer Accountability Partner Workshop, 8/20/20.
Participant, Summer Dialogue Series, 8/12/20, 8/19/20 & 8/26/20.
- 2019-2021 Provided expert testimony at three hearings in the Rhode Island State House on proposed PFAS chemical regulation.
- 2019-2021 Provided written public comments on proposed PFAS drinking water guidelines in Rhode Island, New York, and Massachusetts.
- 2019 Workshop Designer and Facilitator, Community Responses to Highly Fluorinated Compounds (PFAS). RootSkills Conference, New England Grassroots Environment Fund, Brattleboro, VT. With Shaina Kasper.
- 2019 Workshop Designer and Facilitator, PFAS in Food Contact Paper. Local Environmental Action Conference. Worcester, MA. With Maureo Fernández y Mora and Anna Robuck.
- 2018–2019 Member. Showing-up for Racial Justice (SURJ), Boston Chapter.

- 2018 Fellow Interview and Selection Committee. Switzer Environmental Fellows. Robert & Patricia Switzer Foundation. Boston, MA.
- 2013-2017 Board of Directors, Alternatives for Community and Environment, Roxbury, MA.
- 2012-2013 Advisory Board Member, Brothers on the Rise, Oakland, CA.
